

A Sample of Some of the Topics Discussed During the Child Profile Consultation

Example Chart: Child Star, Shirley Temple

Primary Motivation

Shirley's Rising Sign (Ascendant) is the Fire sign of Sagittarius

Fire sign rising people are energetic, ambitious for power and recognition, and driven to succeed and advance in life. With Sagittarius ascending, she is open, frank and broad-minded. She has a freedom-loving nature and a strong desire to broaden her horizons and acquire knowledge and wisdom. She also likes to be the centre of attention. She realises her primary motivation in life for recognition through her Jupiter, which is in Aries in the 5th House of entertainment, song and dance. She will probably travel a great deal in life and possibly develop an interest in politics (Jupiter). [NB. After retiring from show business Shirley ran for Congress in 1969 and became the US Ambassador to Ghana from 1974 – 1976 and Czech Republic from 1990 – 1992.]

The Triplicity Rulers of Shirley's Ascendant are the Sun, Jupiter and Saturn

Shirley's Primary Motivation is also influenced by the Fire Triplicity rulers of the Sun, Jupiter and Saturn. The Sun, like Jupiter, also falls in the 5th House of show business, further reinforcing the desire to entertain. Saturn is in the 1st House indicating great self-discipline and a strong sense of responsibility. Saturn also shows character development through hard work and personal effort.

The Life Purpose: Almutem Figuris

The Almutem Figuris represents the power that dominates the life of an individual. Shirley's Almutem Figuris is Saturn. This indicates a life full of challenges and frequent hardships. Being in the 1st House, Saturn demands personal sacrifices and advancement through ongoing effort and endeavour, with little "time off." As ruler of her 2nd, 3rd and 11th Houses, her efforts are geared towards attaining financial security, communicating with others and pursuing her highest hopes and wishes.

Notable Configurations

The most notable configurations on Shirley's chart are the over-loaded 5th House, with Venus, Jupiter and Mercury all conjunct in Aries, and Saturn and the Moon's South Node in the 1st House. The former indicates a great sense of humour and fun and a natural talent as an entertainer, and the latter suggests personal struggles and periodic feelings of loneliness. The wide distance in degrees between Mercury and the Sun point to a high intelligence.

Career

Shirley's Professional Significator is Mars, which is dignified (by Triplicity) in Pisces in the 3rd and disposed by Jupiter in the 5th; this points to a career involving communication and entertainment.

Finance

Money and security are important to Shirley. Her 2nd House is ruled by Saturn, suggesting there may be a fear of financial insecurity; however her strong work ethic and commonsense should keep her out of financial trouble.

Health

Her physical health is generally good due to the robustness of her Ascendant ruler, Jupiter; however bouts of low vitality and potential illness are likely because of Saturn and the Moon's South Node in the 1st House. [Note: Shirley battled breast cancer in the early 1970s.]

Marriage

More than one marriage is likely, due to Gemini on the 7th House cusp and the Moon in the 7th. [In fact, Shirley has been married twice.]

Family Life

Several planets in 5th House suggest parenthood. [She has three children.]

Spiritual Life

Leo (ruled by Sun in Taurus) on the cusp of the 9th House indicates firm, conventional and unchanging spiritual and religious beliefs.
