

Transit Report
for Frida Kahlo

Introduction

Welcome to your Forecast Report

This report shows the astrological trends influencing your life over a period ranging from days to months or years, depending on the time frame used.

The duration of each trend is indicated by a starting date, an ending date and strongest influence date. Further, an influence may begin before the time frame of the report or end beyond it.

The accuracy of the timing of the forecasts is dependent on the accuracy of the birth time. Be prepared to slide the sequence of trends either forwards or backwards in time if necessary. In some instances, there may be interpretations that repeat themselves. This is due to the cyclical and forward and backward motion of the planets activating points on your chart more than once in the period under review.

As you will find, the forecast interpretations can be positive and/or challenging. Their effects can be experienced either directly personally or through events in the lives of others in the environment. Some trends will be more apparent than others, while others may be subtler. What is most important is how you respond to them.

We trust you will find the report insightful and helpful.

Transits

Before 1 Apr 1953 to Beyond 6 Apr 1954

Transiting Uranus is passing through your 11th House

For the duration of this transit your focus will be on your friends and group activities. Friendships will tend to begin and end suddenly now. You will be attracted to independent and progressively minded people and groups.

Before 1 Apr 1953 to 4 April 1953

Transiting Neptune is Trine your Natal Pluto

At this time, you have the inclination to delve deeply into - and to explore - the inner or spiritual dimensions of your life. Anticipate a possibly increasing enthusiasm for mysticism coupled with intense soul - or emotional - experiences. Expect deep and profound inner transformations.

Before 1 Apr 1953 to 9 April 1953

Transiting Jupiter is passing through your 9th House

This is one of the best transits for travel or academic work. You will have a strong desire to broaden your horizons and mental focus, so you will probably read, study and travel more now than usual. Philosophical and metaphysical subjects are likely to interest you a great deal during this period. If you have any aspirations to become a published author, you should attempt to have your work ready to show to a publisher now.

Before 1 Apr 1953 to 12 April 1953

Transiting Neptune is Sextile your Natal Ascendant

During this period, your imagination and sensitivity are heightened, which may inspire you to explore or develop any artistic or creative potential you have. You will probably also have interests in spiritual and mystical matters at this time. Periods in retreat or in natural surroundings will be soothing and emotionally uplifting now. This can also be a good time for travel.

Before 1 Apr 1953 to 23 April 1953

Transiting Uranus is Conjunct your Natal Sun

Putting it mildly, this is an interesting period for you. Expect the unexpected and anticipate a lot of changes. New and interesting people will enter your life now and introduce you to many new experiences, some of which you may never have thought possible. Whether you enjoy these experiences or not will depend on how you feel about change in general.

Whatever your personal circumstances, you will be restless and unsettled; you may also experience disturbed sleep. All of these are signs of a strong inner desire to break out of your old routines and to revitalise and re-invent yourself. To some extent, you should throw caution to the wind - within reason - and initiate any changes that you know are required now. If you don't, they have a habit of happening outside of your own control. More, than at any other time in your life, there is the need to establish your own unique identity. Some people may not appreciate this; they may have their own reasons for wanting you to stay the same. Thus, this can be a time of rebellion and instability, as you strive for freedom and independence. In concrete terms, you could change your relationship or start a new one, change your location or vocation or become interested in unusual subjects or causes. You may also experience sudden upsets, including unexpected separations. Your relationship to a male may change under this influence. Also, you may need to take extra care of your health and be aware of accident proneness.

Before 1 Apr 1953 to 23 April 1953

Transiting Uranus is Opposition your Natal Mars

This can be a potentially unpredictable planetary combination. It is inherently volatile, but it is difficult to say just how constructive or destructive it may be. Some people simply experience it as a period of fluctuating energy levels, while others find themselves taking physical risks that they wouldn't normally consider. Still others experience sudden arguments and conflicts, especially if they feel that they are being forced to do things against their will. In extreme cases, some people have the misfortune to experience accidents and injuries. All of these are possible, but a lot depends on your essential nature. If you are a naturally aggressive and angry person, you are not going to readily yield to another's demands, so you will tend to have a period of arguments and disputes. If you are naturally reactive, you could experience physical fights or accidents. However, if you are normally calm and easy-going, you will probably only feel restless and impatient.

Before 1 Apr 1953 to 5 May 1953

Transiting Neptune is Square your Natal Moon's North Node

During this period, you may be inclined to form associations with people you know very little about. There is a possibility of being exposed to unreliability or deception within unions, groups or partnerships. Positively, this can be a good time for forming unions with spiritually inclined or artistic and creative people.

Before 1 Apr 1953 to 18 May 1953

Transiting Saturn is passing through your 3rd House

This transit is excellent for embarking upon some course of serious study or mental work. For one thing, you will have the necessary discipline and concentration for it and, for another, you will find it very rewarding if you see it through to completion. Less positively, you may find communication with others, especially siblings and neighbours, takes more effort than usual. Misunderstandings could cause problems. Be very careful with important documents and contracts during this period; make sure you double check everything and get good advice before signing anything complex.

Before 1 Apr 1953 to 19 May 1953

Transiting Neptune is passing through your 3rd House

During this period, your thinking is inspired and imaginative, but also it can be confused and impractical. In business, you need to be careful with contracts. Your relationship with brothers and sisters may be unclear and uncertain.

Before 1 Apr 1953 to 3 September 1953

Transiting Pluto is passing through your 12th House

During this period, you may feel somewhat lost or crisis-prone and unable to assert yourself. Also, you may feel driven by a desire to work with people who are suffering and in need of compassionate assistance. Less positively, your ability to resist powerful people may be weaker than usual now.

Before 1 Apr 1953 to 22 April 1953, strongest around 9 April 1953

Transiting Saturn is Trine your Natal Venus

Your personal relationships should enjoy a period of ease and harmony at this time, providing there aren't other stronger planetary patterns to contend with. There can be a consolidating of existing unions, or the starting of new ones, which could become long lasting. Relationships between people of a wide age difference often commence under this influence. If you are creative or artistic, you will have the discipline to persist with demanding creative projects now.

1 April 1953 to 12 May 1953, strongest around 21 April 1953

Transiting Saturn is Square your Natal Moon's North Node

This can be a testing time for you and others, especially with people who are close to you. Casual contacts are less likely to affect you as much. Other people seem to get in your way or frustrate you at the moment - intentionally or unintentionally. Whichever it is, be patient and exercise self-control, because if you lose your cool, you may harm a perfectly good relationship unnecessarily. Still, not all relationships are guaranteed to survive this transit. Strong and secure ones will; weak and negative ones may not. Estrangements and separations can occur under this influence.

2 April 1953 to 16 April 1953, strongest around 9 April 1953

Transiting Jupiter is Conjunct your Natal Midheaven

This is one of the most positive contacts Jupiter will make on its journey around your horoscope. You are reaching a peak of sorts in some sphere of your life - most likely your career or some other area of personal significance. Anticipate professional success of some measure, perhaps even a promotion. This is an excellent time for expanding a business, if you own one, or for seeking new employment. If you are due for any form of acknowledgement, it will come now and in the months following. An increase in your status is highly likely now. On the personal front, you may form a connection with someone special.

3 April 1953 to 17 April 1953, strongest around 10 April 1953

Transiting Jupiter is Square your Natal Ascendant

During this period, your personal and professional relationships should take a noticeable turn for the better, however, you will need to be adaptable with others in order to get the best results. You are more open to the influence of others now, and people will seem favourably disposed towards you. There are opportunities for joint endeavours, which will prove to be mutually beneficial in the long run.

3 April 1953 to 30 April 1953, strongest around 16 April 1953

Transiting Saturn is Trine your Natal Pluto

This can be an excellent configuration for research and study, because you have greater powers of concentration and the tenacity to apply yourself to intellectually demanding work. You are very clear about your objectives and what you need to do to reach them. Your successes during this period equate to the efforts you expend and the sacrifices you're prepared to endure.

6 April 1953 to 3 May 1953, strongest around 19 April 1953

Transiting Saturn is Sextile your Natal Ascendant

This can be a very good time for improving your relationships with people across the full spectrum of your life - including family, friends, acquaintances and professional contacts. You have a lot of patience with other people now and nothing is too much for you where others are concerned. Older and mature people are beneficial to you now and you can learn a lot from them.

9 April 1953 to 8 September 1953

Transiting Jupiter is passing through your 10th House

During this phase, your attention will be focused on your career and public reputation. This can be a period of achievement based on effort and merit. Expect to advance in life now and to receive acknowledgement and recognition in your endeavours. Your work may become more international in some way at this time.

23 April 1953 to 2 May 1953, strongest around 28 April 1953

Transiting Jupiter is Sextile your Natal Saturn

This transit brings out the best of both Jupiter and Saturn. You will want to expand and grow at this time, but you will be careful in regard to how you go about it. You have good self-discipline and common sense now, coupled with strong powers of perseverance. Whatever you apply yourself to now - be it your work, buying and selling, or business activity - you will demonstrate sound judgement and a responsible and practical attitude. You seem to know how far to go and when to stop. For instance, if you are in business, you may want to expand, but you will only borrow as much money as you can comfortably pay back. Or, if you are considering investing in a savings scheme or property, you will proceed carefully.

28 April 1953 to 28 May 1953, strongest around 12 May 1953

Transiting Moon's North Node is Opposition your Natal Mercury

At this time, you have a strong need to link up with intellectually stimulating and interesting people. This can also be a good time for making business contacts and for negotiating and exchanging ideas with others. Alternatively, there could be the inclination to break-off communication with another or others.

1 May 1953 to 14 May 1953, strongest around 8 May 1953

Transiting Jupiter is Conjunct your Natal Moon

In general, this is a positive and harmonious transit. You feel more emotionally optimistic and secure than usual and can express your feelings to others more easily. Family and domestic matters seem to go well at this time and buying or selling real-estate, or moving home is favoured under this transit. Even if you don't move house or invest in property, this is an excellent time for making improvements to your home, such as alterations and redecorating. On the personal front, you can expect to relate well to people; you will seem to have an instinct for others' needs. Women, in particular, can be beneficial in your life at the moment. This is one of the best times for travelling overseas, making foreign connections or having visitors from far-off places come to stay.

4 May 1953 to 28 August 1953

Transiting Neptune is Square your Natal Jupiter

Of all the planets that Neptune can come into contact with, Jupiter is perhaps the most compatible. At their best together, Neptune and Jupiter can raise your spiritual awareness to higher levels and deepen your powers of compassion and empathy. Artistic creativity, also, can flourish under this influence - especially music, drama, dance and painting. At their worst, they can set you up for a fall by causing you to believe you can get away with just about anything. You may act on faith alone, conveniently overlooking the reality of a situation. For instance, this transit is often associated with speculation and gambling. This is one of the worst periods for pursuing risky financial ventures, because there is a danger of being duped and defrauded. Travel during this transit can be very worthwhile and uplifting, however, because of Neptune's tendency to make things appear other than they are, you should double-check all of your travel arrangements. One last word, avoid complicated legal procedures now, because you're not favoured to win.

12 May 1953 to 4 August 1953

Transiting Saturn is Square your Natal Jupiter

Even the most optimistic people in the world can expect to have their enthusiasm tested during this transit. Whatever your lifestyle, you will have to work harder for success now. This is a time for taking stock of things and cutting back. Maintain faith in your abilities, exercise patience and perseverance, proceed with caution and soon any obstacles will be overcome. This can be a good time for business and real estate, because you will be more careful now than usual and less likely to over-stretch yourself or your budget. Money will be tighter, so take great care with investments and expenditures. This is not a particularly good time to change jobs. If you are feeling dissatisfied with your current work, taking up a new position will not alleviate the dissatisfaction. Instead, wait until the transit passes and review your circumstances then. If you are naturally impatient and restless, you will tend to view this period as restricting and frustrating. Nothing seems to happen quickly enough. Your self-confidence and optimism may seem to temporarily desert you. However, successes are possible now through hard work and self-discipline.

18 May 1953 to 29 July 1953

Transiting Saturn is passing through your 2nd House

One of the most noticeable effects of this transit is financial pressure and worry. You will be more concerned about your economic situation than usual. While you may fear it, you won't necessarily experience undue financial hardship - unless you have been careless with your money in the past. Whatever your financial situation, it won't hurt to tighten your belt during this period. Positively, this can be a good time for making careful investments that take a long time to mature.

19 May 1953 to 14 August 1953

Transiting Neptune is passing through your 2nd House

During this period, you will experience some degree of financial uncertainty or instability. Care is needed when investing, because there is a danger of deception. Get-rich-quick schemes in particular should be avoided.

10 July 1953 to 30 October 1953, strongest around 29 August 1953

Transiting Pluto is Square your Natal Midheaven

This transit can mark an important turning point in your life, with the likelihood of changes in your career and your domestic life. With respect to your career, this could be a time when you will question whether or not you are going anywhere professionally, and if your career is meaningful to you. Pluto contacting the Midheaven requires that you address the appropriateness of your vocation. To be truly satisfying, your career needs to feel as if it is also your calling. Anything less will seem prosaic and uninspiring. During this period, which will last for approximately 2 years, you will be forced to confront the inner and external powers that motivate you to do the things you do. Regarding your domestic and family life, you could change residence now, or even uproot yourself from your place of birth and move across state or abroad. Another thing to consider at this time is your reputation. Take great care now that you do not over-estimate yourself or your abilities, as this transit can set you up for a fall. If you are in a position of power, don't abuse it, as you could draw resentment from others.

13 July 1953 to 7 September 1953, strongest around 8 August 1953

Transiting Uranus is Conjunct your Natal Jupiter

The expectation many people have of this transit is that it will bring them sudden luck, however, experience shows that there is no way of knowing if the luck is good or bad. There is a sense of anticipation with this combination, but it is advisable not to be unrealistic. In some cases, it can bring about sudden windfalls; in others, it can be an unexpected expense, such as a car repair job. You just cannot be sure you're going to receive the result you want. Perhaps the most consistent feature of this transit is that it can release pent-up tension. Generally, though, this is a fortunate configuration; it can bring you into contact with important people, present you with sudden opportunities and expand your horizons through such things as travel and higher education. You could even achieve unexpected recognition during this period. You may alter or modify your beliefs at this time, or get into philosophical debates or arguments with others. In certain cases, there can be legal disputes.

17 July 1953 to 23 November 1953, strongest around 3 September 1953

Transiting Pluto is Conjunct your Natal Ascendant

This is a significant time in your life, in which you can expect to discover aspects of yourself that may be exciting, challenging and even confronting. At a deeply personal level, you are undergoing a process of inner change and transformation. This impulse for change is coming from deep within your psyche. Also, during this period, you become very aware of power dynamics between yourself and others, and within your personal and professional environments. Possibly, you may attempt to control other people, or others may try to dominate you, which will cause tensions in your relationships. You may feel compelled to completely transform your environment - it is entirely possible that you may move house, town or country. Alternatively, you could drift away from old connections and form new ones. Sometimes this transit can totally turn a person's life around and take it in a brand new direction. In extreme circumstances, this combination can indicate injury proneness.

29 July 1953 to Beyond 6 Apr 1954

Transiting Saturn is passing through your 3rd House

This transit is excellent for embarking upon some course of serious study or mental work. For one thing, you will have the necessary discipline and concentration for it and, for another, you will find it very rewarding if you see it through to completion. Less positively, you may find communication with others, especially siblings and neighbours, takes more effort than usual. Misunderstandings could cause problems. Be very careful with important documents and contracts during this period; make sure you double check everything and get good advice before signing anything complex.

3 August 1953 to 8 September 1953, strongest around 23 August 1953

Transiting Saturn is Square your Natal Moon's North Node

This can be a testing time for you and others, especially with people who are close to you. Casual contacts are less likely to affect you as much. Other people seem to get in your way or frustrate you at the moment - intentionally or unintentionally. Whichever it is, be patient and exercise self-control, because if you lose your cool, you may harm a perfectly good relationship unnecessarily. Still, not all relationships are guaranteed to survive this transit. Strong and secure ones will; weak and negative ones may not. Estrangements and separations can occur under this influence.

10 August 1953 to 24 October 1953, strongest around 11 September 1953

Transiting Pluto is Sextile your Natal Pluto

One phase of your life is coming to an end now and a new one is beginning. You have the opportunity to introduce reforms and to commence new ventures and enterprises that will be part of your life for many years. This can be a creative and meaningful period for you. Possibly, you will work together with others on projects that may influence and benefit many people.

12 August 1953 to 4 September 1953, strongest around 24 August 1953

Transiting Saturn is Sextile your Natal Ascendant

This can be a very good time for improving your relationships with people across the full spectrum of your life - including family, friends, acquaintances and professional contacts. You have a lot of patience with other people now and nothing is too much for you where others are concerned. Older and mature people are beneficial to you now and you can learn a lot from them.

14 August 1953 to Beyond 6 Apr 1954

Transiting Neptune is passing through your 3rd House

During this period, your thinking is inspired and imaginative, but also it can be confused and impractical. In business, you need to be careful with contracts. Your relationship with brothers and sisters may be unclear and uncertain.

15 August 1953 to 6 September 1953, strongest around 27 August 1953

Transiting Saturn is Trine your Natal Pluto

This can be an excellent configuration for research and study, because you have greater powers of concentration and the tenacity to apply yourself to intellectually demanding work. You are very clear about your objectives and what you need to do to reach them. Your successes during this period equate to the efforts you expend and the sacrifices you're prepared to endure.

22 August 1953 to 12 September 1953, strongest around 2 September 1953

Transiting Saturn is Trine your Natal Venus

Your personal relationships should enjoy a period of ease and harmony at this time, providing there aren't other stronger planetary patterns to contend with. There can be a consolidating of existing unions, or the starting of new ones, which could become long lasting. Relationships between people of a wide age difference often commence under this influence. If you are creative or artistic, you will have the discipline to persist with demanding creative projects now.

23 August 1953 to 17 September 1953, strongest around 3 September 1953

Transiting Jupiter is Conjunct your Natal Pluto

At this time, you have a powerful urge to make your mark - perhaps, by whatever means necessary. This is a potent configuration, which requires careful handling because the potential for success is great, but so too is the risk of disaster if you over-estimate yourself and your abilities. By way of an illustration to the power of this planetary pairing for gain and loss some authors have referred to it as the "make a million, lose a million" aspect. Therefore proceed with caution if contemplating taking risks that are more than you can withstand. Compulsive behaviour and power plays are common with this transit and you have to be very careful who you take on as an opponent. Those in positions of power, such as bosses or authority figures could make your life difficult, if you get out of your depth with them. Also, there can be the tendency to become zealous or obsessive, which can lead to arguments with others or cause you to lose sight of whom or what is important in your life. Positively, you may demonstrate a capacity for leadership and organisation - an ability to step in and take charge of situations.

27 August 1953 to 25 September 1953, strongest around 8 September 1953

Transiting Jupiter is Conjunct your Natal Venus

This is a very pleasant transit and, as it only comes into your life approximately once every 12 years, you want to take as much advantage of it while you can! As both Jupiter and Venus are acknowledged by astrologers to be the two most beneficial planets in the horoscope, their pairing is considered to be especially propitious. Expect to feel happy and in harmony with yourself and others at this time. Your social life will become a whirl of activity as you find yourself in increasing demand, or you may arrange a greater number of social occasions than usual. Romantic affairs are particularly well-aspected under this transit. Any new romances started now will fare very well and existing relationships will seem happier than normal. Your appreciation of the arts is enhanced now and, if you're inclined to invest in artistic projects or works, the outcome should prove to be quite prosperous. Also, if you are artistic, this is an excellent time to exhibit your work and become known. About the worst effect of this transit is a possibility of over-indulgence.

27 August 1953 to 22 November 1953, strongest around 11 October 1953

Transiting Neptune is Square your Natal Moon's North Node

During this period, you may be inclined to form associations with people you know very little about. There is a possibility of being exposed to unreliability or deception within unions, groups or partnerships. Positively, this can be a good time for forming unions with spiritually inclined or artistic and creative people.

29 August 1953 to 3 March 1954, strongest around 3 October 1953 and 20 January 1954

Transiting Pluto is Sextile your Natal Venus

During this period, "fated" love-unions may be established now. There is a possibility of being drawn to another like a moth to a flame. Positively, this transit has the potential to transform your approach to love and relationships. If you meet someone at this time, his or her influence could stay with you for the whole of your life. If you are already in an established relationship, this transit will deepen it and intensify your feeling toward your partner.

3 September 1953 to 24 February 1954

Transiting Pluto is passing through your 1st House

During this period, you tend to project an intense and powerful presence. You have a way about you that other people find strangely attractive, but also slightly unnerving. Quite possibly, you may try to dominate others in your environment.

6 September 1953 to 22 December 1953

Transiting Uranus is Conjunct your Natal Moon's North Node

The essence of this transit is changing relationships. You can expect to make and break contacts suddenly during this period. Old associations that have run their course are likely to be discarded now and replaced with new contacts that are more relevant to your current lifestyle. You may be attracted to independent, freethinking and original personalities at this time. This transit can also cause or reveal discord in established unions or among family members. You may share in sudden and upsetting experiences with others now.

8 September 1953 to 20 November 1953

Transiting Jupiter is passing through your 11th House

Your friends can become your supporters and your supporters can become your friends now. There is a lot you can achieve for yourself and others by gathering the best and right people around you. You will enjoy social activity more than usual now, and it will be to your advantage to cultivate connections with particular groups or societies. Friendships flourish now.

16 September 1953 to 10 November 1953, strongest around 14 October 1953

Transiting Neptune is Sextile your Natal Ascendant

During this period, your imagination and sensitivity are heightened, which may inspire you to explore or develop any artistic or creative potential you have. You will probably also have interests in spiritual and mystical matters at this time. Periods in retreat or in natural surroundings will be soothing and emotionally uplifting now. This can also be a good time for travel.

17 September 1953 to 10 December 1953

Transiting Uranus is Sextile your Natal Midheaven

This is an excellent period for making changes in your work and domestic life. If you are working for yourself, you could introduce new working methods, take your company in another direction or make more use of technological developments. Alternatively, if you work for someone, this could be a good time to change jobs or suggest new systems to your employer. Equally, this can be a good time for rearranging your domestic conditions in some way. You may change residence or renovate your current home.

23 September 1953 to 17 November 1953, strongest around 20 October 1953

Transiting Neptune is Trine your Natal Pluto

At this time, you have the inclination to delve deeply into - and to explore - the inner or spiritual dimensions of your life. Anticipate a possibly increasing enthusiasm for mysticism coupled with intense soul - or emotional - experiences. Expect deep and profound inner transformations.

26 September 1953 to 1 November 1953

Transiting Jupiter is Square your Natal Saturn

This is one of the more testing transits of Jupiter, but it is by no means unmanageable. Advancement in life at this time seems slow or cumbersome, and everything you want to achieve appears to take a lot more effort than usual. Any progress you make comes at a price and it will probably feel that life is moving along at the rate of three steps forward and two steps back. Also, there can be temporary setbacks and possible financial constraints or worries. At an inner level, you are likely to feel discontented, for no apparent reason, and your self-confidence may be temporarily dented. However, as you will discover, this state of affairs will not last for long. The best way for you to deal with things now is with patience and to persevere in your endeavours. Professionally, if your work is unsatisfying, you may decide to change jobs, but only take such a step if you have something better to go to. Buying and selling property is often successful with this transit, providing you don't over-extend yourself financially.

5 October 1953 to 21 October 1953, strongest around 10 October 1953

Transiting Moon's North Node is Trine your Natal Moon

At this time, important and significant people could come into your life. Females, in particular, can be influential during this period.

9 October 1953 to 6 December 1953, strongest around 5 November 1953

Transiting Neptune is Trine your Natal Venus

This can be a somewhat dreamy and romantic time for you. You may become mildly infatuated with another or someone may have idealistic thoughts about you. Either way, it is more likely to be pleasant and amusing than deceptive or disillusioning. Yet, if other factors support it, spiritual love can occur now. Romance aside, this configuration advantages anyone who is artistically gifted or inclined. Music, the visual arts, painting, dance, theatre and fashion can all flourish during this transit.

3 November 1953 to 2 December 1953, strongest around 20 November 1953

Transiting Jupiter is Conjunct your Natal Venus

This is a very pleasant transit and, as it only comes into your life approximately once every 12 years, you want to take as much advantage of it while you can! As both Jupiter and Venus are acknowledged by astrologers to be the two most beneficial planets in the horoscope, their pairing is considered to be especially propitious. Expect to feel happy and in harmony with yourself and others at this time. Your social life will become a whirl of activity as you find yourself in increasing demand, or you may arrange a greater number of social occasions than usual. Romantic affairs are particularly well-aspected under this transit. Any new romances started now will fare very well and existing relationships will seem happier than normal. Your appreciation of the arts is enhanced now and, if you're inclined to invest in artistic projects or works, the outcome should prove to be quite prosperous. Also, if you are artistic, this is an excellent time to exhibit your work and become known. About the worst effect of this transit is a possibility of over-indulgence.

11 November 1953 to 7 December 1953, strongest around 25 November 1953

Transiting Jupiter is Conjunct your Natal Pluto

At this time, you have a powerful urge to make your mark - perhaps, by whatever means necessary. This is a potent configuration, which requires careful handling because the potential for success is great, but so too is the risk of disaster if you over-estimate yourself and your abilities. By way of an illustration to the power of this planetary pairing for gain and loss some authors have referred to it as the "make a million, lose a million" aspect. Therefore proceed with caution if contemplating taking risks that are more than you can withstand. Compulsive behaviour and power plays are common with this transit and you have to be very careful who you take on as an opponent. Those in positions of power, such as bosses or authority figures could make your life difficult, if you get out of your depth with them. Also, there can be the tendency to become zealous or obsessive, which can lead to arguments with others or cause you to lose sight of whom or what is important in your life. Positively, you may demonstrate a capacity for leadership and organisation - an ability to step in and take charge of situations.
