

Astro Locality Report for Barack Obama

Introduction

Your Astro-Locality-Map (ALM) report is based on the well-known astro-mapping techniques of Astro*Carto*Graphy(R) (A*C*G) and Local Space Astrology(R) (LS) popularised by Jim Lewis and Michael Erlewine respectively.

Astro*Carto*Graphy astrology superimposes planetary data onto a map of the world and shows where each planet in a birth chart culminates, anti-culminates, rises and sets.

Local Space astrology superimposes planetary data onto a map of the world and shows the direction of each planet from the birth place. For each planet, a line is drawn through the birth place, the planet's zenith and nadir. This line extends around the entire Earth forming a great circle.

The geographical locations of the planetary lines represent places where the individual can expect to experience the effects of the planet under observation, either by going to a location on or close to the line, or having important contacts, such as family, romantic or business connections there.

To interpret your Astro-Locality-Maps simply locate a planet line on the map, e.g. Sun M, and look up the interpretation in the list below.

We trust you will find the report insightful and helpful.

The Planetary Lines

The " M " Line

The vertical planetary line marked with the letter "M" indicates where an ACG planet is culminating - i.e. reaches its highest elevation above the horizon. Culminating planets correspond with the Midheaven or Medium Coeli, usually the 10th House cusp. The Midheaven is the highest point in a chart. It represents personal aspirations, reputation and career. Planets on this line describe how these areas are experienced in the locations the line passes through.

The " I " Line

The vertical planetary line marked with the letter "I" indicates where an ACG planet is anti-culminating - i.e. reaches its lowest elevation below the horizon. The Imum Coeli corresponds with the 4th House cusp and represents family matters, domestic circumstances, real estate and later life. Planets on this line describe how these areas are experienced in the locations the line passes through.

The " A " Line

The curved planetary line marked with the letter "A" indicates where an ACG planet is on the Ascendant - i.e. rising in the East. The Ascendant corresponds with the cusp of the 1st House and represents personal expression, the face you show the world and how you project your personality. A planet on this line describes how you will present yourself to others at the locations the line passes through.

The " D " Line

The curved planetary line marked with the letter "D" indicates where an ACG planet is on the Descendant - i.e. setting in the West. The Descendant corresponds with the cusp of the 7th House and represents the type of energies or people you attract, such as partners or enemies. A planet on this line describes the effect other people have on you at the locations the line passes through.

The " d " Line

The curved planetary line marked with the letter "d" indicates the Local Space direction of a planet's zenith position. Those lines passing through the birth place in a North/South or an East/West direction are considered to have extra strength.

Neptune A

You radiate a dream-like quality and mystery that draws others to you. You are more sensitive and susceptible to external influences and other people here. Nothing seems certain.

Pluto Lines

Pluto M

Pluto I

Anticipate power struggles in your home here, as family members or flatmates vie for positions of power and dominance. On a more mundane level, your home will probably need repairs to its foundations, plumbing and drainage.

Pluto A

At this location, you may display a powerful presence and an intense personality. You desire power and have an uncanny instinct about the strengths and weaknesses in other people. Others may find it difficult to get to know you as you tend to conceal your character, yet they sense that you are not someone to toy with. Personal vigilance may be required here as there is some risk of danger and of being exposed to forces outside of your control.

Pluto D

You can come into contact with powerful individuals here. Take care in your dealings with others, as your potential for making enemies is stronger than you imagine. You have a tendency to push your relationships to the limit and to place great emotional pressure and demands on your partners. Power struggles are likely in your personal unions.

Pluto d

Things can happen here that change your life dramatically. You may meet someone who has a profound effect on you, or an external event of some sort can turn your life upside down. Life is not a picnic here; you often feel under pressure from others or even from forces within yourself. Power struggles are possible; especially if others try to push you around, or you try to push them around. If you are at a transition point in your life this is a good location to hurry the process along. However, the intensity you feel here is hard to sustain for long periods at a time.
